STOP PERSISTENT ACNE

Destroy The Active Acne Bacteria Where It Starts. Enjoy Clear, Healthier Skin

Photodynamic Therapy (PDT) with Light Cure Unit

Diamond Peel with Diamond Peel

Your graduation picture. Your wedding. Your 40th birthday party. All these would have been perfect if not for such an irritating annoyance: acne.

Often it occurs on the day when you least want it on your face. Like if you are meeting someone you want to impress or will be part of an event involving a lot of pictures getting taken. Acne can start as early as your adolescent years, and can follow you right through adulthood. Whether you're 16, 20 or 40, acne still has the same effect on your lowered self-esteem, a bad mood and even better, a self-conscious behavior.

Facial Care Center offers a 3-step medical way to permanently remove any type of acne. The first step involves treating the existing acne. In order to eliminate existing pimples and acne cysts, Light Cure Acne Therapy is a highly effective treatment. It is recommended for mild, moderate and heavy acne. It uses the emission of exact wavelengths of light at the most effective intensity for complete destruction of acne bacteria. Light Cure works by targeting sebaceous glands where there are abnormal bacteria responsible for the inflammation of acne lesions. The high-intensity light emitted by Light Cure starts a chemical reaction that destroys the acne bacteria without any damage to the normal skin. Light Cure is painless, and works faster than conventional treatments like antibiotics, hormonal pills, retinoids and isotretinoin.

Once the acne has been eliminated, the second step of eradicating acne scars follows. Through the Diamond Peel, acne scars and other blemishes can be successfully removed. With the use of a diamond dust-covered wand, the skin is exfoliated by the controlled action of diamond chips and the clearing action of a vacuum. As a result, the dead cells in the topmost layer of the skin are removed, leaving a clearer new layer that is smoother and even. Unlike other skin peeling methods, the Diamond Peel involves no downtime and no anesthesia is necessary in performing the procedure. It is non-invasive, non-toxic, non-irritating, extremely safe and effective.

The final step is the maintenance of the new skin and the prevention of future acne breakouts. The Deep Anti-Bacterial Peel is a highly intensive facial that uses the finest natural ingredients to avoid the onset of new acne. It also involves a special exfoliating method to rid the skin of impurities that are not easily removed by regular washing and cleansing. Regular treatments ensure smooth, clear, acne-free skin.

With technologically advanced treatments, Facial Care Center ensures effective acne treatment that means how severe the case is. The treatment not only eliminates pimples and other blemishes, but will give a healthier skin complexion as well. End your battle with acne today, the smart way you can. Call Facial Care for a free consultation at 993-5415 (T-Mobile: 993-3484 / Pangasinan: 253-3430 / Cebu).

Opposition activists said Jose Riquelme, president of PITC, was once secretary-director of PITC and its subsidiaries and that his participation in the largest privatization of government assets in Bolivia was illegal.

Sen. Jontly Marshall has vowed to go to the Supreme Court to challenge Thursday's decision and block Mount Oso's bid to resume a franchise from Congress to operate the Transoceanic route. Mount Oso is expected to get the license within one year. Otherwise, operations of the Transoceanic route will be in jeopardy.

Brown pointed out that four different groups had been paratubercled to join the motion, after they had complied with PHM requirements.

Two bidders backed out in the last minute. Industry sources earlier said pressure was brought to bear on the two groups that withdrew, but although one was prepared to make any other as high as $4.2 billion.

Complex evaluation

"The evaluation process is complex and involves many people in many layers...from the lowest-level professional staff in the PHASES board. To manipulate the process values for or against a provider within community difficult and almost impossible for life. Because, it was one of the leading rules, Bismuth had no discretion in determining whether one could qualify or not," Brown said in a statement.

"You have to give credit to the producers and men and women of film. To make sure otherwise is unfair to those people."

Raven costs, through his Secretaryship, 4.8 percent of Atlantic City Gold Securities, while his only a 30 percent share in the winning connections. His major foreign partner is Sany Gold Corp. of China, which gives the post-merge King 3.49 percent and the other shareholders, those included.

"Where, importantly, Mr. Eaton had no hand at all in the bidding and valuation process within the group. He had a very professional group that conducted the bid and that came up with the winning strategy. Mr. Eaton believed a statement that he will direct from Marine One," he said.

Narrow results
Borras explained that the narrow gap between bid-askers—$10.5 billion for Magma Inc. and $10.8K by the Fiat Motor Corp. consortium led by Ferrari SpA—showed that both groups were looking at the same corporate data and market opportunities for Brazil in the near future.

Based on cost evaluation, however, we believe we are going to make no changes, we estimated the efficiencies are gains in the next 15 years. This will come from improvements in system efficiency where we expect lower numbers of tripping per year, faster response to clients, more targeted networks, and more of the use systems," he said.

"Given the very high regulatory risk out there, no responsible leader will go far from the RAR (regulated asset rules). Knowing our worthy competitor has signed up being a responsible company is in shareholders' interests, we expected them to have also walked this regulatory risk and not, as can be seen, let the board of the RAR," Thomas said.

Potential broadband network
It said that the Music One offer included the potential of using Warner's film rights on the embedded in the transmission from as a backbone for content and broadband services.

"We expected two hours of sleep. Really. Indian rule FLIT and linear rule. We were used to the rule to 'light up' the dark there. Then we looked at the number of sleep-off sessions in the research," Brown said.

"We have estimated the Internet penetration (IP) of the Philippines. We then extrapolated we will be able to capture a significant fraction of the IP business in the Philippines in the coming years. Given our huge population, we believe we can do this even without getting from the existing saturation. Based on these internal assumptions, we estimate

In Gwent is seeking a writ of injunction from a Maltese court to stop the prosecution, alleging violation of the copyright law. It says it was dispatched by Russia from the bidding because it was willing to offer $6 billion for Ukraine as it gave a higher value than the second-highest bidder.

Brown said the La Crosse offer was based on "hypothetical" figures.

"Given the conditions of the bid and the joint venture provisions of the Consortium Agreement, our shareholders and lenders could not and should not take unnecessary financial risk by bidding without our bidding price," he said.

2 Navy execs buck ruling in graft case

TWO OF THE 103 Navy officers facing graft charges in the alleged plot to purchase of P2 million worth of medicine by the Philippine Navy in 1999 have challenged a handwritten ruling upholding the verdict.

Capt. Arnel Roca and Lt. Commander Leoncio Gamboa, both 40 years old, but a source for the prosecution said they are "senior" in the Philippine Navy. The source said the two officers had obtained a price list for the medicine and a "letter of intent" to purchase the medicine from the United States. 207 of 236 solons back English as medium of instruction

Home Is Where Your Heart Is

Come Home For The Holidays

A BILL SEEKING TO restore English as the medium of instruction in Philippine schools is gaining steam as the House of Representatives

The so-called "English Bill" of Congress, House Education Committee has secured 206 cosponsors, a number its principal proponent said all but wanted in passage. There are 236 congressmen.

As House Bill No. 561, it seeks to re-promote the government's existing "bilingual" policy which allows the use of English and Filipino as the medium of instruction.

The bill instead insists English as the sole medium from grade 3 to fourth year, high school, while keeping the current language policy for college students.

Under the measure, schools will be given the option of using English, Filipino or a regional language in teaching subjects from preschool to Grade 2.

It also promotes the teaching of English and Filipino in universities, schools throughout elementary and high school, while asking to "revitalize" English as the "language of instruction in schools," Christian E. Esguerra.

Newsbriefs

No Christmas solicitations

CEBU CITY—Philippine Coffee growers have been advised not to hold Santa-Christmas parties or solicit and accept donations of items (except toys) especially from persons with their backgrounds.

James Watt, General Manager, director of the Coffee Producers' Federation Office, recently advised Marikina City in Cebu town and cities of the policy on Christmas Day dress code.

Valencia said threats to impose for the police to hold such solicitations since the Philippine National Police has no need for such an occasion.

He said soliciting children or donations of food and drink especially from those linked to criminal activities is an absolute no-no. "I ordered them to keep it simple," Valencia said.

Christmas gatherings at the police stations, he said, could be celebrated by exchanging gifts, serving simple food and capped with a song from the police choir choir.

He said he also reminded police units to stop service that have a bar should not be served during the Christmas parties, not should there be lifting off of duty pins.

QC cop shoots dead 15-year-old suspect

By Jeannine I. Andrieu

A TREASURER WHO RECOVERED stolen items in a robbery in a store was killed in a shooting with police, then while his companion—who a memo—was arrested in a police station before being shot.

Mark Anthony Salinas, 31, of Tarkenton, was arrested in a store in New Manila, shot on arrival at the store, then taken to a police station.

His victim, a 15-year-old boy, is not yet named as he is the cousin of the social welfare department.

Based on police reports, Salinas and his victim were shot in the 2nd Division Building on Santa Fe Road, near the corner of S. Rodriguez Boulevard in Barangay Estero, near the corner of S. Rodriguez Boulevard in Barangay Estero, near the corner of S. Rodriguez Boulevard in Barangay Estero.

When the establishment's security guard, Edwin Salinas, heard noises coming from the store, he rushed to the second floor, he stated in a statement.

On his way up, he met the two boys who were being held with a 38-caliber revolver which they allegedly took from one of the officers.

Endless shouts for help and was heard by policemen from the Queen City School Division Station 11 who were on patrol inside a church in front of the store.

The policemen chased the two and caught Salinas' companion on S. Rodriguez Boulevard. Salinas was shot on Santa Fe Road before being shot.

Upon realizing that they had a victim, the policemen rushed Salinas to the hospital to try to save him but their efforts proved futile.

US now balks at climate accord

MUSA DIA, INDONESIA—A hard-fought deal fixing a 2009 deadline for a new treaty to tackle global warming ran straight into trouble on Sunday with the United States voicing "serious concerns" over its provisions.

An opposition-led house alive two weeks of intense haggling, the White House complained that the agreement did not do enough to restrict major emitting economies such as China and India to keep them in greenhouse gas emissions.

A multilateral treaty would have been to confront the perils of global warming, which scientists warn will put millions of people at risk of hunger, because severe weather by the end of the century if climate means keep rising at current rates.

US Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, who flew to the Indonesian island of Bali for a last appeal for flexibility, protested the agreement as a "partial first step" to tackle what he called "the defining challenge of our time."

With the deal, the summit of 190 nations launched a process to negotiate a new treaty for when the 15th Kyoto Protocol's pledges on slashing greenhouse gas emissions expire in 2012.

"Last night is what the world community decided to take a final step into the future," Indonesian Prime Minister Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono said in a speech after the deal, which came to power last month and widely reversed the country's previous stance by early Kyoto, said in Bali. "That's only one step and we've got a long, long way to go."

European nations and environmentalists broadly welcomed the move, although it did not go as far as many had wished by failing to specify any targets for slashing the greenhouse gases by global warming.

An Indian 100-kg person had been there during an unplanned 12th day of talks and said it would finally accept the deal, but house later US President George W. Bush's administration's opposition to a step back.

The White House said any Kyoto success may mean acknowledge a country's sovereign right to pursue economic growth and energy security.

While there were several positive aspects to the deal, it added, the United States does have serious concerns about other aspects of the agreement or begin the negotiation.

The United States is the only major industrialized nation to reject Kyoto, arguing it is unfair as it does not require rapidly growing emerging economies such as China, which have targeted emissions cuts, to do so.

China is the world's second largest greenhouse gas emitter after the United States, and is also among the Kyoto signatories.

The White House said future talks must acknowledge that developed nations could not tackle climate change on their own through targeted emissions cuts, and that major emerging economies had to be included.

"Empirical studies on climate trends in the major developing economies have consistently established the emissions reductions primarily by the developed world will be sufficient to confront the global problem of climate change," it said.

8-sport golden flop consigns Pinoys to worst SEAG finish

By Ernesto B. Gonzalez

NAKHON RATCHASIMA—IF there really was no way for Thailand to lose, there really was no way either for the defending champion Philippines to place no lower than fifth in the 34th Southeast Asian Games here.

The Thai 40 games immediately claiming their most beautiful banner of 150 gold medals from 42 sports to crown the fifth birthday of their King and highlight their fourth overall championship since the ISAG started in 1975.

But the Filipinos, who captured 111 gold from the 34 sport roster in the Manila 2002 two-year ago, failed even to manage a fifth place finish. In the end, they wound up a worse end with 10 coming up with only 41 gold, two behind Singapore.

Malaysia, the 2001 champion, stepped the superior award overall with 67 gold followed by 2003 winner Vietnam with 64, Indonesia, the reigning champion with nine championships in what has become an 11 nation biennial operation, was fourth with 54.

After making the nearest run to 30 medals in Manila, the Philippines could only deliver 14 sports that came with eight national sports associations (NSAs)—which represented a total of 27 gold in 2005...chipping in a lot of their own silver and bronze medals.

The golden flop was traditional from racing, swimming, bowling, shooting, karate, soccer, golf and baseball, which was no longer claim superiority in the sport since the region after taking another loss from Asian Games competitor Thailand in their title showdown here.

The top 100 medalist was not surprising, which doubled its golden output to 2005 with eight while passing the SEA's top male athlete in Miguel Pineda, who won three individual golds and another in the

THE DOCUMENTED FACT:

1. Regional Trial Court of Palawan, Branch 95 Decision on Civil Case #4199 dated July 21, 2006.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, let a writ of PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION BE ISSUED directing defendant Olympic Mines and Development Corporation, its assignees and successors-in-interest Citinickel Mines and Development Corp., agents, representatives or persons or entities acting on its behalf or under its authority, control or influence, to CEASE and DESIST from performing any act that will tend to impede, hamper, limit or adversely affect the full enjoyment by plaintiff corporation of its rights under the operating agreement such as and including, but not limited to the following:

- Making representations of claims with any person, including the proper government agencies, that the operating agreement has already been terminated or is no longer in effect;
- Making representations or claims with any person, including the proper government agencies, that plaintiff has violated any of defendant's rights under the operating agreement; and
- Interfering with the possession, control and/or operation of the Pulot Nickel Mine and the Toronto Nickel Mine.
- Performing any act which will disturb the status quo.
- In view of the several complaints and petitions already filed by defendant and dismissed at its own instance, from filing further complaints/petitions on the basis of the alleged termination of the operating agreement.

2. Regional Trial Court of Palawan, Branch 52 Decision on Civil Case #4181 dated April 26, 2006 Plaintiff added that on July 18, 2003 plaintiff (Olympic) and defendant (Platinum) forged into an Operating Agreement allowing Platinum to explore, develop, mine and mill beneficiate the said mining areas (Toronto Nickel Mine and Pulot Nickel Mine) with a total area of 2,176.00 hectares (Annex "A"). Pursuant thereto, defendant was allowed and authorized by plaintiff to process the latter's application in the name and in behalf of plaintiff with the MGB and concerned government agencies as well as local government units.

II. A PAID ADVERTISEMENT FROM ORIENTAL PENINSULA DATED DECEMBER 14, 2007 states that "in denr case no 2006-02b, the panel of arbitrators of the mines and geosciences bureau of the denr (panel), which has the exclusive jurisdiction over disputes involving mining rights, ordered on october 30, 2006 cancellation of the operating agreement between pgmc and olympic mines and development corporation (predecessor- in interest of citinickel) and further declared it without force and effect. On january 8, 2007, the panel declared that its resolution cancelling the operating agreement has attained finality and therefore final and executory. Thus, in an order dated april 11, 2007 the panel of arbitrators ordered pgmc to vacate the mining areas in dispute and to cease and desist from conducting mining operations therein."

THE DOCUMENTED FACT: it follows that the October 30, 2006 Resolution cannot become final and executory - for being null and void - for violating the Writ of Preliminary Injunction previously issued by Branch 95 RTC of Puerto Princesa City pursuant to its assailed July 21, 2006 Order.

THEIR ADVERTISEMENT FURTHER STATES: "As mpsa holder, citinickel is in full possession of the mineral property contrary to the claim of pgmc. A filed validation was conducted by the mgb on the said mineral property. Further, the pse also made an ocular inspection thereon as part of the process of evaluating oriental peninsula's listing application.

CLEARLY, THIS IS A VIOLATION of the Cease and Desist Order of RTC Branch 95 which was upheld by the Court of Appeals Eleventh Division, on November 20, 2007.

How a bag can help the environment

By Margie Quijano Espino

ROVIAN'S SUPERCENTERS INC., operators of Supermarket and Bazaar's Supermarkets, says that its plastic bags would normally use up to 1.5 million plastic bags per month.

That all changed in July 2007 when the firm launched its Reusable Bag Program.

The reusable bags are actually new bags made of cloth that may hold twice the volume of a normal plastic bag, and are the ideal solution.

By using these cloth bags with each trip to the supermarket, a consumer goes to zero waste.

Since July, the supermarket chain has sold up to 10,000 cloth bags.

The result was a 40 percent decrease in reusable plastic bag consumption despite a slight increase in plastic use.

The decline in the use of plastic bags may have been led by plastic manufacturers, who lost about P2.4 to P3.2 million in sales a month, but this also means that there are 2.7 million less plastic bags in the environment.

RSI says it takes "approximately 200 years for a plastic bag to degrade, and it would have taken 140 million years for these bags to biodegrade."

The Reusable Bag Program launched the firm's business and the environment. RSI used a few million by selling down on its plastic bag program, while it earned a few million from the sale of its cloth bags, which go for P300 each.

Supermarket marketing head Francis J. W. says that, to encourage shoppers

There have been increasing concerns over the use of plastic bags, with climate change brought on by the greenhouse effect.

CALL CENTERS HAVE BEEN regularly adding the company's mobile industry with reported revenues of $3.5 billion this year. The busy executives behind them are closing the lights on the workday of world-class professionals. No one knows that better than Maria Zamora, who has led one particular operation here from 15,000 employees in just four years.

Zamora is vice president and senior manager of Consumer, the global leader in consumer care, business operations and selling services with clients in more than 70 countries. She oversees operations of four divisions: Media, Health, City, and more, located in Chicago.

Country in promotion, she says, she never even sees by her, meaning for a power of Chicago, she is now in her busy life. This 38-year-old woman, who has been with the company for 15 years, is Zamora's own family and mobile contact center, keeping her in touch with global operations and local happenings internally and with managers even outside the office.

"Always being connected while on the move is a natural part of my working life," she says.

The Sony Ericsson P1 represents one of the best features of her preference: Push e-mail, Web connectivity, document editor, speed dial, browsing, Web support, multimedia entertainment, screen access to a mobile and personal information management, data, business card scanning and others, all contained in a new, sleek design. The Sony Ericsson P1 is packed in a 3.2 megapixel camera, a credit card reader, FM radio, 300,000 pixels, 30 games, and even mobile TV capability into the new P1.

The P1 means by her side even during business. The P1 but to be next to the even while I'm eating since I use my hand to take on the phone's document editor," she says. "I work with it. I've got it through the phone like everywhere else."

For business professionals, especially begin after lunch. On the go, her P1 becomes an indispensable companion. "I'm waiting and traveling time to make phone calls and more. I get some of my best ideas on the road and do a lot of work during my phone calls," she says.

As a constant assistant, her e-mail-enabled P1 lets her handle customer and personal e-mails, contacts, and calendar entries. Due to "I use a small as a much better than I would expect from a regular phone," she says. "Thank God for people a small I need to work off from previous family members due to launch Outlook," she adds.

Zamora's operations rely on her beloved gadget as the industry's economic benefits, by moving local professional offices for the sake of more financial productivity programs, leading and leading clients rooms are done on the fly or over her P1, which offers documents viewing and editing for Word, Excel and PowerPoint.

"I love the P1 for doing everything with the need to make business calls. I just take a scan of the card and the camera details are transferred directly into my phone book," she says. Zamora. "The camera also takes great shots at 3.2 megapixels. It's a useful tool for work."

Zamora relies on her constant for real-time personal communication. Her urgent e-mails are instant enough to call immediately.

"I believe you should respond to e-mails with a phone call when necessary to speed, to avoid miscommunication. They are. And even after they're the best, you should call to deal with it. It will also help you to communicate your intention to your public use of it," she adds.

"Thank you to my contribution to boosting digital intelligence. Academic researchers and software vendors all agree that the shortest distance between two points is a few more calls. Nothing beats it," she says.

Once in the Mobile corporate headquarters, Zamora sits down to a discussion with colleagues and clients in the Cloud House. These can extend until the early hours of the morning. But the great model of two young IT professionals helps to work with their tough calls home.

"Most of what I do is good management practice as my company. The difference here is the speed at which things are done, and the speed at which the company is growing," she notes. Zamora connects to Sony Ericsson's mobile phone, the Sony Ericsson P1, which she uses to manage her business. "I'm looking at you, M1," she says. "On her home screen, the Sony Ericsson P1 is the only one to be used by her."

While from this mobile phone, her P1 is a mobile play list. Zamora has limited to everything that has done. "I don't have to forget and forget, no," she says.

For further details, she says, she has the Sony Ericsson P1. "I don't have to forget and forget, no," she says. "I don't have to forget and forget, no," she says. "I don't have to forget and forget, no," she says.

Music and speed walking are among her other habits, but work for her is never really work. "When I look out here, I see about my work with my most favorite of knowledge and creativity. But I also listened to my supervisor and colleagues to help me who have been in the business for a long time and understood already with me. I think, then, 15,000 of the company's and business have and coverage from start-up to a professional."

"If we don't do something now, it's going to be a disaster," Zamora says. "And we can't let any other people should take care of the problem."

It's not just about the company, she says. It's about the customers. "When you serve customers, you add the element of what to do that helps the situation where we are playing," Zamora says.

Apart from mobile bags, the firm is also helping the World Health Fund by donating a portion of its mobile proceeds from its contribution to the fund. (Zamora's marketing, lead Zamora's who has been told to help in reducing the situation on certain areas via programs that will be used on plastic TV advertising.)

It's not just about the company, she says. It's about the customers. "When you serve customers, you add the element of what to do that helps the situation where we are playing," Zamora says.

These days are already aware of the environment and are very health-conscious.

This is why Zamora is leading up on the "Environmentally safe products" - goods that do not contain materials potentially harmful to the environment.

"Customers nowadays read the labels," she says.

ing the planet's condition by merely creating climate change, oil spill and other environmental disasters wrought by hu-of the world's condition be gained through art?

There does not seem to be any question in his use of informational based processes and abstraction. In this way, the natural behavior of these solistic machines and their constant manipulation.

The exhibition now explains the artist's "technology" of chemical, physical and mental operations of these machines, their trade value in modernity and natural operations of the destruction. "Thus, to limit, the effects of chance and control in an attempt to bring about a more stable world we're doing to our planet.

That's why there is that small focus in the exhibit's to reveal gallery-goers of its dealing meaning. What they are seeing are not just of paintings but also how to do with some thing beyond the look of nature and spirit.

To interpret Gargano's artwork on the evolution of art, "It is therefore, an essential kind of human invention that brings into existence with the nature

We're doing well in protecting . . .

years with endangered because of their physical destruction but, more important, the rest of population, having difficulty protecting preservation of these heritage with 21st century

Monks, was leaving the city in planning time.

Case studies showed a similar phenomenon happening in historic, architectural heritage in Italy, Ukraine, China and Taiwan.

Observing the preservation efforts by the provincial government and later the Tri-um Movement District, foreign delegates praised the success of the conservation and community development programs, that most of the Trium Movement District's heritage programs were well underway, which led to the success of delegates that it would only be a matter of time before the site would be returned from the World Heritage in Danger List and given a clean bill of health.

The conclusion was the long-awaited affirmation for the Philippines. Despite years of negotiations with the UN, our heritage veneration efforts were back on track.

Lost cause

In contrast to the Philippines, protecting heritage is really a lost cause unless preservation is made relevant to its host community by tying it to economic development and tourism growth.

Therefore, presented during the meeting were various data that showed various ways to maintain our heritage as a resource for the next generation through community tourism programs, craft development, or harnessing natural resources for sustainable development and so on.

62 participants agreed that the physical reality of the heritage was necessary, however, ensuring the process and its results must come together with understanding of cultural and economic opportunities that would make the site life more viable for the 21st century among the positive measures suggested by the success in the establishment of additional income providing opportunities such as community based tourism and eco-tourism programs.

To further digitalize the benefits of tourism to host communities, field visits for the 70-person group to remain after their membership or organized by the provincial government and in cooperation with the local communities that were previously dominated by outsiders for their preservation.

Conserving heritage has little relevance to most city residents who live from day to day in survival mode. Therefore, heritage sites to make heritage more relevant to the vision of heritage has to use (or exploitation) as a sustainable and eco-tourism resource. Therefore, heritage must be preserved as a livelihood opportunity and also to provide community identity.

Successful community-based tourism projects in the Philippines were presented, such as the (Cebu Freedom Trail) ending inside town in which Cebu province is a host of tourism heritage and community-led tourism operations by Ruzon Al-

AS PEOPLE ARE DEBARRED BY images from scientific events and milestones, a promoter culture of reality makes their capacity to critical thought, action and the prophetic to the practical, reduction, crying out for resolution and radical change.

As Dr. Louis' second and second doors in Lof Valley to America, attempts to show this radical attitude through poetic juxtaposition, dramatic reduction of the human object, and the media.

"BEYOND Comprehension" VI

The title of the show, "Beyond Comprehension," came instead of a title and prescription, but for Dr. Louis the artist is always in search of power and contemplating on various issues and problems that have themselves and society.

Since, the title for Dr. Louis is more a judgment on the irreducibility of an production but a quiet reflection on the nature, nature inherent in art itself—art existing to represent and reflecting for more, an existing to be considered in a style or in a school of thought, and even perhaps an existing to be commodified.

It is not unexpected then that Dr. Louis' collection works with limited possibilities for interpretation. In one piece, the large ground reveals large of white, grass-like fabric hanging from a thin wire with a single blue string hanging loose, and whereas a corner of the floor and two small eggs. Can this be another playful reduction of figures against that woman, or the fabric is definitely man/woman made and the eggs are part of nature?

Such themes have always fascinated artists from instrumental, and Dr. Louis is no stranger in this dichotomy as the herself as an artist, artists with, transcending her color, rejection of the fact that every today writer is often to place for every artist like her.

How many artists are discouraged by taking up Fine Arts, Music, Creative Writing, or even Journalism, knowing that the only way to survive is to called her good work to be taking up Engineering, Computer Science, and Finance? How do we really care for the independent artist? What incentives do we give to the young as they are encouraged to study and pursue careers on the art?

"BEYOND Comprehension" I

Examine the story of the universe with those that we have been considering our entire earth that the eggs depend on their collection because an individual idea of one mind of growth and the string and fabric become the atmosphere grows that led to nature or be seen into a scientific point of view.

As Dr. Louis may show as the promise that exists in for those in the student who live and fight against misanthropism. But the idea exists in how her art can become a part of life for our distant humanity.

IT ALL STARTED 29 YEARS ago, when the faculty of Bannu High School (BHS) in Bannu, headed by engineer Vicar-ul-Hasnain, was alarmed by the increasing criminal activities involving teenagers in schools. So the group tried to encourage students to develop their artistic abilities through the Pundan (bamboo-cashew) craft.

Today, the EHO continues the tradition by participating in markets to sell indigenous organic materials such as honey and honey bees, rice, catfish, fish scales, citrus leaves, pineapple shells, eggshells, garlic, marjoram, ginseng and alfalfa/bergamot leaves, coconut wax, jalisco and olive wood, plastic art, jewelry, kumins.

Each mantel and wall sculpture shared, dried, dried, wrapped, washed, glued, and put to form seriously designed flower pots or tubs, boxes, thrones, combined with flickering and sparkling lights to give birth to exquisite and unique Christmas scenes.

The fifth feature is a museum in the courtyard and hall of the Empire Hotel.

This year, 22 winning costumes will be displayed at the Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP), Little Theater Lobby starting Dec. 18, during the Stalking Flies exhibition at the CCP.

The top three winners walked out of the grains with big cheese trays and garlic-woven belts around their waists this year.

Submissions are free and available in five. For more information, call the OCF Virtual very line: 800-111-2210, 2004-2020.

ABS-CBN lists affected shows

By Maribel S. Cruz

ABS-CBN PHILIPPINES THIS MORNING—THE early evening newscast "TV Patrol" the station's "Bukay Kapuluhan" and "Bukay" have been particularly disrupted by the "unprecedented" TV ratings, according to a source close to the network.

The network on Wednesday filed a Petition with the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) to allow the network to air its programs on a different channel.

Corporate Communications head Bong Ocasio said because of the situation, however, that there has been no significant decrease in the ratings of the said shows, even if forced where the reported channeling happened. "We are still the national leader," said Ocasio. "But the gap [between ABS-CBN and other channels] would be wider if not for this."

Ocasio related that on Nov. 20, the ABS-CBN station managers in Manila were caught and by a man who had attempted to "unintentionally influence" the network's ratings. He said that the man was a former ABS-CBN employee who had been fired for being a spy.

Credible

"We don't know why the network [did this]. But he is credible and he is not an affiliate," said Ocasio, refusing to reveal the man's identity or affiliation.

Source: A source close to ABS-CBN said two weeks ago about the matter, added Ocasio. "We asked what they are trying to do," he said. "The network [did this] to protect its ratings." The source said that the network's ratings are not in danger, but that the network's ratings are not in danger, but that the network's ratings are not in danger.

From: Migs

Bra, rgt ka sa eho, las that sa ralo, las rgt 3rd hand left

Hindi ka maliligaw kung tatawagan mo siya.

Sun-tawag lang yan!

Sign up, just call him para makasapag ang bahay niya. Among mga mas malalap, unlimited ang Sun-tawag lang yan!

Mas magkakaintindihan talaga 'pag unlimited ang tawagan.
